

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
RECOMMENDATION OR RENEWAL FOR CANDIDACY FOR ORDAINED MINISTRY STUDIES

by

Form I: The Charge Conference (§ 311.2b)

Let those who consider recommending persons for candidacy as ordained ministers in The United Methodist Church ask themselves the following questions which were first asked by John Wesley at the third conference of Methodist preachers in 1746. Since that time these questions have been the criteria by which prospective Methodist preachers have been judged.

1. Do they know God as a pardoning God? Have they the love of God abiding in them? Do they desire nothing but God? Are they holy in all manner of conversation?
2. Have they gifts, as well as grace, for the work? Have they a clear, sound understanding; a right judgment in the things of God; a just conception of salvation by faith? Do they speak justly, readily, clearly?
3. Have they fruit? Have any been truly convinced of sin and converted to God, and are believers edified by their preaching?
