Radical Hospitality is the second of five elements for Living the United Methodist Way.

A one-day event, held in five locations across the Florida Annual Conference, is designed to help teams from congregations think through what it would mean for their congregation to be radically hospitable to the people in their community and to the next generation. In addition to the three plenary sessions, each participant will be able to choose from two practical breakout groups.

Jesus is our model for radical hospitality. He welcomed into his presence tax-collectors, prostitutes, lepers, sinners of all sorts, political-radicals, men, women, children – in fact, anybody and everybody!
How can the people who follow him not do likewise?

God “reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting our sins against us. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ’s ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us.” (II Corinthians 5:18-20)

Registration and other information will be available soon. Visit www.flumc.org/methodistway for more information.
